

Workshop Title

“What we don't see: Gender stereotypes, discrimination and exclusion in our everyday lives. Necessary reflections and transformations”

Short Description

The “What we don't see” is an activating lecture aiming to raise awareness about everyday life various dimensions of unconscious gender bias. Its purpose is to offer us the necessary realizations and tools so that on the one hand we can perceive such situations and on the other hand we can take actions to transform them.

Gender Alliance Initiative: Who we are

The Gender Alliance Initiative (G-All) is a non-profit organization for gender, diversity and human rights. Through raising awareness, dissemination and building capacity actions, with an interdisciplinary, allied and inclusive vision, and ensuring equal participation and empowerment of men/boys, women/girls and lgbtqi+ people, we promote and facilitate necessary transformations for gender equality, justice and democracy. (<https://g-all.gr/>)

Vangelis Kosmatos is a psychologist with expertise and many years of experience in counseling with a gender perspective, in educational psychology and counseling, and in adult education. He is scientific director and co-founder of the Gender Alliance Initiative.

Giorgos Nikolaidis is an actor/performer and playwright. He also works as an adult educator, as a trainer in gender equality and inclusion seminars, and as a facilitator in experiential self-awareness and personal development workshops. He is managing director and co-founder of the Gender Alliance Initiative.